We Have Not Seen God in His Fullest Yet

Even though the title is an impossibility, because there is no time, moment, or circumstance, where it is possible for us to see or understand God in His fullness, there is however the possibility to be open for greater manifestation of His will in our lives.

Past blessings should never be perceived as the "limit of God." Certainly He has done great things with us, and through us in the past, but we must remember that "There is no limit to the usefulness of the one who, putting self aside, makes room for the working of the Holy Spirit upon his heart, and lives a life wholly consecrated to God." Christian Service p. 254

Our Lord is more than willing to bestow His blessings and guide us in greater things for Him. We must never think that the past is the best we have had and there is nothing more to do, or more efficient ways to achieve the end of saving humanity.

In starting this new quinquennium, we must be thankful for past blessings and guidance, but, even though we have nothing to fear, unless we forget how the Lord has led in the past, this does not mean we must remain stuck in the past.

As we are nearing the end of time, it requires new thinking, new strategies, new ways of doing things in order to respond to new challenges, and allow God's mercies and leading to be renewed in us every day.

The purpose of this plan is to present a united front in our effort to be more available for the Lord to use.

Praise the Lord for his leading in the past, however, give glory to Him for the certainty of His present leading and guidance in the task at hand. The great task of saving those who are lost and know it, and those who are lost and are not even aware of their conditions, is ours to do. We therefore commit ourselves to the Lord to be used by Him for His honor and glory.

Maranatha!
Introduction
Reach up to God, reach in with God and reach out with God are the principal tenets of the “Reach the World” Strategic Plan of the General Conference for this quinquennium to advance the mission of the Lord by preparing the world for the second advent of Christ. In contextualizing this strategy, the administration of the Inter-American Division has adopted the theme; “Lord Transform Me.

Over the last several years, we have experienced phenomenal growth of the church here in this Division. We have attributed this to the leading of the Lord, the transforming power of the gospel of Christ and the empowerment of the Holy Spirit. The triune God has worked through administrators, departmental leaders, pastors, other organizational employees and the laity. As we reflect, we express gratitude to both the Lord and all those who made themselves available to be His chosen channel in realizing what we now celebrate as the Inter-American Division.

Today more than ever, we believe that we are at the border of the Promised Land, and crossing is closer now than it has ever been. As we look across our vast territory, we envision a great task yet to be accomplished. There are still millions within our shores who have not yet given primary attention to the three angels massage of Revelation 14:6-12 that we, the remnant people of God are commissioned to proclaim.

During this quinquennium, the growth and consolidation strategy of the Church here in this Division must be focused on each member developing an understanding of the righteousness of Christ and being involved in more vibrant and sustaining spiritual relationship with the Lord. We must identify the needs and resources within the church and the wider community, affirm the strengths, and through the development of appropriate skills and competencies, address the needs. We must endeavor to have all members giving their full interest and participation in the life and mission of the Church and contacting others and sharing with them in most meaningful and positive ways that will lead to multiple life changing experiences. We must continue to grow our membership because the specific mandate of the Lord to the Church is to preach, teach, baptize and teach. This command has great implications for retention of those who are baptized.

Our strategy is a comprehensive one that calls for the collaboration of all ministries, departments and institutions, working harmoniously to fulfill the heart of our mission. We desire to see faithfulness to the tenets of our beliefs as a church on the part of every member. With this new comprehensive thrust, we anticipate transformation in every area of the life and service of our Church.
The prayer, aspiration and motivation of every member of the Church for this quinquennium is, “Lord Transform Me!

Strategic Imperatives
Our strategic imperatives are the areas of growth needs that must be addressed in our churches and institutions to strengthen the spiritual life of the members, engage all members in service to fulfill the mission of the organization and win souls for Christ, and coordinate ministries and departmental approaches to influence the faithfulness of all members.

1. Equip Adventist Pastors and Elders with appropriate skills and competencies to organize their members to effectively connect and share with others to build strong social relationships, increase the membership of their congregations annually and consolidate all members through appropriate methods, and eliminate or significantly reduce the active and inactive classifications whereby the members of the church become active and faithful disciples of Christ.
[Assistant to the President for Evangelism]

2. Nurture Pastors and Elders to grow spiritually, faithfully attend to the needs of their families, and each member of their congregation, build strong collegiality among themselves and provide training and motivation that enable them to remain committed leaders of the to Church. Equip them as well to train their members to remain loyal to the doctrinal beliefs of the Church. [Ministerial Association]

3. Nurture and retain all members of the faith through intentionally organized bible study programs especially those made available through the Sabbath School Ministries and other needs based bible study initiatives. [Sabbath School]

4. Affirm and cultivate where necessary, the spirit of faithfulness in each member, to consider returning tithe and offering faithfully as an integral part of their transformed life in Christ that must be lived. Utilizing their talents and spiritual gifts to connect and share with others must likewise be strongly emphasized and nurtured. [Stewardship]

5. Every member of the church must live a transformed life in Christ and be an instrument for the saving of souls. They must be equipped to determine social and spiritual needs both within and outside the Church and be trained to connect and share with others. There skills and competencies in lay preaching, lay bible work, bible instruction and lay witnessing they must influence others to Christ and disciple them not only to remain within the faith but to share their faith with others as well. [Personal Ministries]

6. Educate and encourage students in Adventist educational institutions to know and understand the doctrinal beliefs of the church, accept Christ as their Savior and participate in leading others to the faith and to support them in maintaining their faith. [Education]

7. Guide Adventist students and professionals who are studying and or working at non-Adventist universities to know and understand the doctrinal beliefs of the church, accept Christ as their Savior and participate in leading others to the faith and to support them in maintaining their faith. [Public Campus Ministries]

8. Nurture the youth of the Church to develop a personal relationship with the Lord, wisely and biblically evaluate current trends, embrace wholesome social relationships within the Church, train them to connect with non-Seventh-day Adventists and influence them to develop and maintain relationships with the Lord and membership in the Seventh-day Adventist Church. [Youth Ministries]

9. Assist members in developing strong spirituality within their biological and church families, train them to reach other non-Adventist families with the gospel of Christ, provide inspirational messages to encourage both Adventist and non-Adventist families to live and share their faith in Christ and to maintain strong family cohesion. [Family Ministries]

10. Devise means to educate the members of the Church to appreciate and embrace the ministry of Ellen White in the SDA Church, to study her writings and make personal applications as well as to connect and share with others important messages from her writings that will nurture and build faith in Christ, the Seventh-day Adventist Church, and the mission of the Church.

[Spirit of Prophecy]

11. Develop and nurture the interest of members of the Church to utilize all available media; print, digital and all other forms of mobile devices to share the gospel. Direct them on how to access available content information to share their faith and influence others to Christ. Provide them the appropriate training to explore, learn, connect and share. [Communication]

12. Equipping members to establish Adventist presence in un-entered territories within the Division is a priority for evangelizing people in unreached territories, primarily in the large cities. [Global Mission]

13. Organize and nurture the ladies of the Church to grow their relationship with the Lord, develop strong social relationships with others, both within and outside the Church, through effective connect and share initiatives, and to train them to reap and disciple others through intentional initiatives. [Women Ministries]

14. Organize and nurture the children of the Church to grow their relationship with the Lord, develop strong social relationships with others, both within and outside the Church, through effective connect and share initiatives, and to train them to reap and disciple others through intentional initiatives. [Children Ministries]

15. Impaired physical and mental health is a great issue both within and outside the Church. By helping members to develop trust and confidence in the Lord, determine their state of social, spiritual, mental and physical wellbeing, addressing deficiencies and helping others also along similar lines, thy will become God’s channel to help others find the path to health and happiness in Christ. [Health Ministries]

16. To share Adventist beliefs, lifestyle and practices through the printed pages has been a primary missiological approach of the Church since 1848. It has contributed to the exponential growth in Adventism around the world. To motivate colporteurs to develop and live a transformed life in Christ, organize them to fulfill special connect and share initiatives and train them for effective participation in such initiatives, will continue to increase the membership growth of the Church and pass on the legacy of the church to succeeding generations. [Publishing Ministry]
17. Both man made and natural disasters have been prevalent and inevitable in our Division territory. Poverty and social inequality are likewise characteristic features that must be addressed. There must be organized and trained groups of volunteers within the church who are able to connect and share with governments and NGOs to address felt needs and also to share on a faith basis as appropriate. By addressing developmental and social needs, these volunteer Adventists must point the beneficiaries to Christ. There must be such initiatives in place that the members are trained to execute in order to guide both beneficiaries and donors to a saving relationship with Christ. [ADRA]

18. Very often it appears that some civic, community and business leaders are quarantined and cannot be reached by those who carry the gospel. While it is true that many of the members may not be effective in reaching them through issues of proximity and social visibility, there are those within the church who, by virtue of their visibility are able to reach them. There should be initiatives of the church to recruit and train such volunteers to be able to connect and share with them on a social level as well as spiritually. [Religious Liberty]

19. Impaired physical and mental health is a great issue both within and outside the Church. Effective Adventist health care institutions help all of their employees and volunteers to develop a strong relationship with the Lord, connect with their patients socially, emotionally and spiritually and share compassion with them. They also address deficiencies and help them to find the path to health and happiness in Christ. [Health Institutions]

LORD TRANSFORM ME [LTM]

LORD TRANSFORM ME is an intentional effort of all employees and laity of the SDA Church in the Inter-American Division to live Christ-like lives, through the empowerment of the Holy Spirit in harmony with Romans 12:2, “Be not conformed to this world; but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God”. Through a renewal of the mind, they experience reformation in the way they live, interact and serve. Resulting from this renewal, they influence others through deliberate means to accept Jesus as their Savior and become disciples of Christ.

Theological Reflections

The current world in which we live is considered the “evil age” (cf. Gal. 1:4; 2 Cor. 4:4; Eph. 2:2). This is placed in contrast to “the age to come” (cf. Matt. 28:20; Heb. 1:3; 1 John 2:15–17). Followers of Christ face the challenge of contending with these two ages at the same time. Through the attractions of daily realities and sinful human nature, they are coerced each moment to become conformed to the present evil age. To this coercion, they either readily or hesitantly acquiesce. The Apostle Paul in his counsel in Romans 12:2 exhorts them “not to continue to be like the changing, fallen world system (the old age of rebellion) of which they are still physically a part, but to be radically changed into Christlikeness (the new age of the Spirit)”.

This counsel that he places in the present passive imperative with the negative article “do not be conformed” calls on believers in Christ to stop the behaviors of conformity to the present evil age that they are already pursuing. Ellen White said; “Nothing but the grace of God can convict and convert the heart; from him alone can the slaves of custom obtain power to break the shackles that bind them. It is impossible for a man to present his body a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, while continuing to indulge habits that are depriving him of physical, mental, and moral vigor” {CTBH 10.2}.

In Romans 12:1-15:13, Paul emphasizes the expression of faith-righteousness. He accentuates the concept that Christianity is a way of life and that the Christian life is an obedient response to the grace of God. This response is manifested in true meaningful worship (Romans 12:1–2), which consists of total self-surrender and vital participation in church life. In this sense, Christians should recognize their dependence upon God and one another (Romans 12:3–5) and should use the gifts, which God gives them through the Holy Spirit for the good of others (Romans 12: 6–8) and practice real love in all personal relationships (Romans 12: 9–21).

By his appeal to “Be transformed” in verse 2, Paul extends a call for Christians to dedicate their whole life to God. The basis of the appeal rested in the mercy of God (12:1). As believers are transformed in their minds and conformed to the image of Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit (Titus 3:4-7), they will develop an abiding relationship with Him (Mark 3:13-15), be able to discern the righteousness of Christ (Malachi 3:17-18), participate actively in the mission of Christ (Matthew 28:18-20), communicate in wholesome ways within the faith community (Ephesians 4:29), and actively seek to nurture others in the faith (John 15:16). Only through spiritual renewal can believers do the will of God (1 Thessalonians 5:16-18).

LORD TRANSFORM ME STRATEGIC INITIATIVES

Transform and Live
A special study of the Righteousness of Christ, Revived by the Word Reading plan, Study of the Fundamental beliefs of the Church, ongoing prayer initiatives and faithfulness to the Lord and His Mission. “See how great a love the Father has bestowed on us, that we would be called children of God; and such we are. For this reason the world does not know us, because it did not know Him. Beloved, now we are children of God, and it has not appeared as yet what we will be. We know that when He appears, we will be like Him, because we will see Him just as He is. And everyone who has this hope fixed on Him purifies himself, just as He is pure” (1 John 3:1-3).

Transform and Live Objective #1:
To provide bible-reading initiatives that will inspire and motivate every member of the Church to develop a personal bible reading routine that will help them to increase their bible knowledge and apply the word of God to their personal life.

1.1 - Revived By His Word
A special bible reading plan called Revive by His word shall be an ongoing program of the church for this quinquennium. “See how great a love the Father has bestowed on us, that we would be called children of God; and such we are. For this reason the world does not know us, because it did not know Him. Beloved, now we are children of God, and it has not appeared as yet what we will be. We know that when He appears, we will be like Him, because we will see Him just as He is. And everyone who has this hope fixed on Him purifies himself, just as He is pure” (1 John 3:1-3).

Transform and Live Objective #2
To engage the members in a special study of the Righteousness of Christ and encourage them to follow the lifestyle of Christ each day.

2.1 - The righteousness of Christ
Between June 1, 2016 and December 31, 2016, a special study of the Righteousness of Christ will be conducted in each local church. An elder should be assigned the responsibility to coordinate this initiative. This theme shall be the subject of study for daily worship at work among employees in all institutions and organizations of the Church within the Division. Pastors, Elders and those who use the pulpit within our churches shall present messages on this theme. The Division shall make materials on this subject available to all pastors, church leaders, organizations and institutions and where possible to all members through technology or other means. “But now apart from the Law the righteousness of God has been manifested, being witnessed by the Law and the Prophets, even the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all those who believe; for there is no distinction; for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God,…” (Romans 3:21-23).

Transform and Live Objective #3
To encourage the members to enhance their knowledge of the ministry and counsels of Ellen White and to make personal applications to their lives and ministry.

3.1 - Spirit of Prophecy
Each local church shall encourage every member to acquire the “Believe His Prophets” initiative of the church by following the daily reading guide. Someone in each Church should be assigned the responsibility to coordinate this initiative. In places where it is possible, the ministries of the local church may coordinate such initiative. This initiative shall continue throughout the quinquennium.

Transform and Live Objective #4
To engage the members in a renewed study of the twenty eight fundamental beliefs of the Church.

4.1 - Fundamental Beliefs
Between January 2017 and April 2019 one of the Fundamental doctrines of the church shall be studied in each church and institution within the Division on a monthly basis. This shall also be coordinated by one of the elders at the local church level. “Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth” (2 Timothy 2:15).

Transform and Live Objective #5
To encourage the members to enhance their personal prayer life through ongoing prayer initiatives.

5.1 - Lord Transform Me Prayer Initiative
The special prayer initiative “Lord Transform Me” shall be organized in each local church, institution and organization of the Division. Someone shall coordinate this initiative at all levels. This shall be a major prayer theme in all the churches throughout the quinquennium. Every Friday night in each home, neighborhood and relevant locations, “Lord Transform Me” prayer sessions shall be held. These can be personal, small groups and/or congregational spiritual encounters. These shall help all participants to focus on their personal need for spiritual transformation, faithfulness and participation in the Mission of Christ, whereby the Holy Spirit can truly accomplish the work in them and use them in service to others. “Lord Transform Me” will integrate the United in Prayer Concept of the church. “When He came into the house, His disciples began questioning Him privately, "Why could we not drive it out?" And He said to them, "This kind cannot come out by anything but prayer" (Mark 9: 28-29).

5:2 - LTM Prayer Team
Every level of the organization should have a Lord Transform Me prayer team that will constantly intercede with the Lord for transformation to be realized at the personal and corporate level.

Transform and Live Objective #6
To encourage every member of the Church to live a life of faithfulness to the Lord in the way they manage their talents, time, resources and body temple and serve the church and others.

The faithfulness of members shall be an ongoing theme that is preached, and that is the center of all prayer initiatives. Between May 2019 and December 2019, there will be a special study of this theme in all churches and institutions. The Division shall make materials available on this subject, which will cover principal areas of the life of each member including how they manage all the resources that the Lord has made available to them. “Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to cast some of you into prison, so that you will be tested, and you will have tribulation for ten days. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life. 'He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. He who overcomes will not be hurt by the second death” (Revelation 2:10-11)

Transform and Live Objective #7.
To encourage worship leaders in all churches to improve the worship services through enhancing the elements of each worship service so as to create a transformational experience for worshipper.

7:1 – Spiritually Enhanced Worship Experiences
Each local church should have individuals responsible for evaluating the elements of worship and to determine how those elements and the entire atmosphere can be enhanced to create transformational worship experiences that will inspire the Transform and Live experience of every member.

7:2 – Music and the LTM Initiative
Music is a powerful means of bringing inspiration to the heart, educating the emotion, training the intellect and building a repertoire of bible knowledge. Creating music that teaches the fundamental beliefs of the Church is a great way to help members to understand and share the fundamental beliefs of the church.

Explore and Learn:
Every member should be invited to explore their strengths and growth areas in order to utilize their strengths in a meaningful way to increase their faithfulness to the Lord and to participate in His cause. As they consider the various mission opportunities in the church, and identify areas of interest to participate, they should seek training to develop competencies, skills, concepts and principles in order to effectively participate in the mission. “About this we have much to say, and it is hard to explain, since you have become dull of hearing. For though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you again the basic principles of the oracles of God. You need milk, not solid food, for everyone who lives on milk is unskilled in the word of righteousness, since he is a child. But solid food is for the mature, for those who have their powers of discernment trained by constant practice to distinguish good from evil” (Hebrew 5:11-14 ESV).

Explore and Learn Objective #1.
To assist every member of the Church to identify his or her talents, passion, interests and spiritual gifts.

2:1

To conduct relevant surveys within the church and the wider community to determine social and other needs as available resources in order to address deficiencies and affirm strengths.

3:1

Explore and Learn Objective #4.
Develop curriculum and structure training modules based on perceived needs, to equip members with requisite skills and competencies to make meaningful impact in fulfilling the mission.

4:1

Explore and Learn objective #6
To develop appropriate materials and resources and mentoring and coaching opportunities to ensure success in the connect and share, proclaim and reap and conserve and disciple initiatives.

6:1 – Resources
For effectiveness in each of the five components of this program, practical, relevant and suitable resources are needed. Local Churches, Local Fields, Unions and the Division must explore, innovate and create resources applicable for execution of the program.

Each of these four entities must coordinate as best as possible to provide funding for the development of materials and resources to execute the program. The Division has a limited budget from which it can contribute to Union proposals for the development or procurement of materials and resources to execute this program. Unique LTM Mission projects with potential to reach and reap many souls to Christ may also be considered. The Division’s contribution will be available for projects, materials and resources that will fulfill specific aspects of the LTM initiative. These must be thoroughly tested and proved to be valuable and essential to the program.

The Division will determine which proposals it will be able to participate in funding. Proposals must be presented to the Division through the Union with a detailed budget identifying specifically the contributions from other entities of the organization on a funds matching basis. Proposals from the local field must have proposed funding from at least the local field, and the Union. All materials and resources for consideration must be transferable for LTM execution in other territories. Some examples of materials, resources and projects that may be considered for funding are:

1. Development of new Bible Lesson Series
2. Development of new series of Evangelistic Sermons
3. Development of new sermon graphics
4. Development of relevant trainers and trainee’s manuals to address specific areas of LTM.
5. Development of a series on the Righteousness of Christ that members of the local church can understand and make personal application to their lives.
6. Practical ways to contact and share on a spiritual and social level with non-Adventists
7. Realistic ways to connect with inactive members of the church and get them engaged.
8. Unique Mission initiative with potential to baptize large number of souls.
9. Development of LTM Software for marketing, connecting, content sharing, information gathering, witnessing, reporting, etc.
10. Development of LTM Application for iPad, iPhones, etc.

Proclaim and Reap:
Pastors have major responsibilities in organizing themselves and members of the Church for effective personal and public evangelism, which are intended to reap souls for the Kingdom. Public evangelism is the most effective method of speaking to and persuading both small and large groups of individuals to Christ in a single experience. Preachers need to spend time to qualify themselves to conquer their fears and engage in this divine activity. The Old Testament makes it evident that God used His mouthpieces in public proclamation to declare His messages. Jesus proclaimed the message publicly and did so in collaboration with His followers.
The Apostles also were involved in public evangelism and the mandate is given to all believers likewise. Preachers must determine that by the grace of God they will claim the Power of the Holy Spirit, prepare themselves and their teams, and go forward to proclaim the gospel through public evangelism. Effective evangelistic invitations that produce good results depend on persistent prayer, personal and field preparations, clear content, clear language, and clear directions. Preachers must be decisive, bold and fearless to extend the invitation to others.

ACTIVE MEMBERS

All active members of the church should be identified and be part of a special program in which they receive discipleship training. Each ministry involved in Conserve and Disciple under the guidance of the Pastor and the LTM team of the church must coordinate efforts for effectiveness.
